Chapter 420: The Apex of Creation — Archangels and Dark Archangels

The Archangels: Beings of Supreme Light

Among all of Sung Jin-Woo's creations, the Archangels stood as his most powerful and perfect beings, embodying his mastery over the essence of light. Each Archangel was a living testament to his divine craftsmanship, unparalleled in power and majesty.

Wings of Light: Ranging from 600 to 4,000 wings, the sheer number of wings signified their immense strength and authority. Their radiance could illuminate even the darkest corners of existence, instilling awe and reverence wherever they appeared.

Invincibility: Their bodies, forged from pure light, were impervious to all forms of harm, including divine and godly energy from outer multiverse entities. Even the gods and deities beyond the omniverse would falter before them.

Abilities: Archangels possessed unparalleled control over divine magic, light manipulation, and reality warping. They could reshape worlds, purify corruption, and obliterate entire armies with a mere gesture.

Each Archangel was a force of nature, serving as the ultimate guardians of creation and the multiverse. Their presence alone deterred any threats, even from the most malevolent entities beyond the omniverse.

The Dark Archangels: Masters of the Abyssal Flame

Beneath the Archangels in rank but no less fearsome, the Dark Archangels were forged from the primordial black flames that symbolized destruction and rebirth. While the Archangels represented light and order, the Dark Archangels embodied chaos and shadow.

Wings of Black Flame: Their 600 to 3,000 wings radiated an ominous energy, capable of consuming anything in their path. The black flames were unquenchable, burning through matter, energy, and even the concept of existence itself.

Invincible Guardians: Although slightly less potent than the Archangels, Dark Archangels could stand toe-to-toe with godly beings from the outer multiverse. Their destructive prowess and resilience made them indispensable in defending the multiverse against invaders.

Dual Nature: Unlike the Archangels, the Dark Archangels could harness both shadow and flame, allowing them to adapt to any battlefield and overwhelm even the most unpredictable foes.

Their dark beauty and terrifying power made them Sung Jin-Woo's ultimate warriors, striking fear into the hearts of his enemies.

The Hierarchy of Supreme Beings

1. Archangels: Pinnacles of creation, invincible beings of light who reign supreme over all of Sung Jin-Woo’s creations.

2. Dark Archangels: Embodiments of destruction and rebirth, serving as the vanguard of his shadow and flame armies.

3. Angels and Dark Angels: Masters of light and shadow, surpassing all other beings in the multiverse except the Archangels and Dark Archangels.

Sung Jin-Woo’s Vision of Balance

Sung Jin-Woo gazed upon the Archangels and Dark Archangels, his creations standing as unshakable pillars of his power. With their invincible forms and unmatched abilities, they ensured the stability of the Godverse, the multiverse, and beyond.

“Light and shadow,” he whispered, watching as the Archangels and Dark Archangels descended to their posts across the infinite realms. “Two sides of the same coin. Together, they form the ultimate balance.”

These supreme beings served not only as warriors but as symbols of his divine perfection, forever guarding the realms against any who dared challenge the might of the True Absolute One.
